

THE FUTURE OF HELLENISM IN AMERICA ORDER FORM

“The phenomenon of Hellenism is indeed unique to the world. There is no other ‘ism’ which has commanded so much admiration and praise for so many centuries of human history. There is no other word in the collected pool of language that signifies so much idealism, perfection, arête, beauty, and excellence. There is no other ‘ism’ in history which so enflamed idealistic hearts and minds to sacrifice their lives for another’s cause as did thousands of philhellenes in the Greek War of Independence. This was truly an historic phenomenon: Frenchmen, Englishmen, Germans and Italians; Austrians and Spaniards; Dutchmen and Americans rose up behind the blue and white standard to secure the freedom of Greece. This, because there is no other ‘ism’ to which we all feel members and inheritors of, regardless of race, creed, religion, or national origin.”

– David R. Weinberg, an educator and scholar of Hellenism, emeritus professor of History at Wayne State University.
